

The Embassies of Ireland and the United Kingdom to the Holy See together with Talitha Kum have pleasure in inviting you to a Discussion

Monday 3rd December 2018
09:00-11:00 hs.

Venue: UISG - Lungotevere Tor di Nona, 7, Roma

TALITHA KUM IN AFRICA:
WOMEN RELIGIOUS LEADERS
AGAINST MODERN SLAVERY

Sr Gabriella Bottani, Talitha Kum International Coordinator, will share her recent experience on delivering anti-slavery projects (formation, networking, research) in Nigeria, Burkina Faso and Cameroon, with the support of the Irish and the British Governments.

Simultaneous interpretation (English/Italian) will be provided
If you are not able to come, please join the online meeting in English: <https://zoom.us/j/522714870>

TalithaKum - UISG – www.talithakum.info - 06 68400235 - RSVP: rsvpholysee@dfa.ie

Programme

09:00-09:30

Registration and coffee

09:30-09:45

Welcome and introduction

Sr. Sally Hodgdon, UISG Vice President

09:45-10:00

To combat human trafficking pastorally

Fr. Michael Czerny, Under-Secretary Migrants & Refugees Section, Integral Human Development

10:00-10:30

Presentation "Talitha Kum in Africa" with testimonies from the African network

Sr. Gabriella Bottani, International Coordinator of Talitha Kum

10:30-10:50

Interventions

H.E. Derek Hannon, Ambassador of Ireland to the Holy See

H.E. Sally Axworthy, British Ambassador to the Holy See

10:50-11:00

Conclusions

Moderator Patrizia Morgante, UISG Communications Officer