PROGRAMME FOR THE PREPARATION OF FORMATORS

2022

The programme will begin on February 1, 2022 and continue through June 30, 2022.

The programme will be held at UISG. In the event of any difficulties in relation to travel because of the pandemic, online participation will be made available. The programme is non-residential. Participants will be asked to attend some preparatory sessions in late January prior to the beginning date.

OUR PURPOSE

In response to the need to prepare sisters for formation ministry, the International Union of Superiors General (UISG) offers a programme in English for sisters taking up the responsibility of accompanying those in the initial stages of formation to religious life. This programme is offered in the context of the religious congregations of the participants and the needs of the church and the world in the 21st century.

Topics to be covered include

- Processes of human and spiritual growth
- Intercultural living
- Vocation and the consecrated life
- Spirituality
- Prayer, community, ministry as dimensions of consecrated life
- The vows
- Discernment
- Mission in the context of the world today
- Stages of formation and their processes

During the programme, the participants form a learning and supportive community, take on leadership responsibilities and share the uniqueness of their cultures.

The participants will have on-going mentoring and an 8-Day Directed Retreat in Nemi and the opportunity for Psychological Assessments at the Institute of Psychology of the Gregorian University.

They will also have an opportunity to visit significant places for prayer and reflection.

Participants to Date

From 2019 – 2021 a total of 104 participants from 80 congregations and 73 nations have attended the programme

"It is a very balanced programme with a wide range of topics and other opportunities. The richness of the participants coming from so many countries and religious congregations is very valuable."

"I found the programme very enriching, especially for my own personal growth. I experienced a kind of transformation that was very satisfying. I go back a different person and well prepared for the ministry of formation."
